Jesus said, 'I am the way, the truth and the life.'

Reading: John 14:1-7

TODAY'S WORSHIP SERVICE – – Simon's band will be leading worship at our monthly family service as John returns with one of his epic dramas which we hope will challenge you and make you smile. This service is based on Jesus' words when He said, 'I am the way, the truth and the life. It will be preceded by Breakfast Time which is open to all ages from 9.30am. Breakfast time is a place to encourage Christians and non-Christians alike, to share in some food together, before the family services begin. It is about using the gifts of relationships, hospitality, generosity, and kindness to make people feel valued. It is about helping people feel that they 'belong.' As relationships develop, the sharing of one's faith may also emerge in time. Don't miss this opportunity.

NEXT WEEKEND'S WORSHIP SERVICE 10th August 2025 – Clive's band will be leading worship as Simon returns to his Word Study series as he looks at – 'Amen, Hallelujah and Workmanship'. Don't miss this opportunity.

IMPORTANT NOTICE – MONTHLY PRAYER GATHERING - CHANGE OF DATE. Our monthly prayer gathering will now take place on Tuesday, 12th August at 7pm in the church. Please do join us as we seek God's will for the church and our lives.

THE SECRET OF JOY REVEALED! - JOY = Jesus + Others + You. In other words, JOY is the result of prioritizing Jesus first, others second, and ourselves last, creating a life filled with peace, purpose, and fulfilment through love and service. (Liz Nichols)

WEC CAMPS 2025 – This weekend the WEC Christian holiday camps welcome their second groups of young people to the camps at Criccieth in North Wales. The good news is that the camps were fully booked for both weeks which means around 400 young people will be celebrating a week of inspiring worship, solid Bible teaching and engaging mission sessions. These sessions are aimed at exactly the right level for the young people on camp and don't simply stop at the end of the meetings. Discussions and exploration of the themes carries on throughout the week and are often picked up in the evening quiet times. Of course, there is also lots of lovely food cooked on the field kitchen and plenty of fun. As the camps are held under canvas, please do pray for good weather and not too much wind. Pray too for the leaders and the young people that together they will grow in their faith as well as enjoying themselves. Please do thank God for the 'prep' teams who built the village beforehand and for the 'break down teams' whose job it is to dismantle it and the end of camp.

This week's poem reflects on our search for direction, the struggles we face in making decisions, and ultimately the peace that comes when we recognize that Jesus is the only true guide. Let these words remind us that no matter where we are on our journey, Jesus is always there, leading us home (John 14:1-7).

"The Way, The Truth, The Life"

On a map of life, the paths are wide,
With twists and turns we cannot hide.
Each road we choose, each step we take,
Leads us to decisions we must make.

A cross marks the spot where we begin,
The way to truth, to life, within.
But sometimes, oh, we lose our way,
Confused by shadows, led astray.

The road is narrow, the journey tough,
We question if we're strong enough.
But in the distance, faint but true,
A voice calls out, "I'm here for you."

"I am the Way," He softly says,
"The Truth, the Life that never fades.
No need to wander, no need to roam,
For I am the path that leads you home."

We've stumbled, lost, but now we see,
That with Jesus, we're truly free.
His love, the light that guides our feet,
The cross, the way where grace meets peace.

So, with each step, we walk His path,
Trusting the Way through all we have.
The Truth, the Life, our hearts now know,
In Jesus, the way is clear to go.
