Please pray for Gary Eggington who has decided to discontinue his chemotherapy treatment as his body simply can't take any more. He has been spending more time in bed than out of it as he is absolutely exhausted. He finds difficulty in eating and drinkingi but he continues to keep fighting this dreadfil desease. It is now the family's mission to help him recover his strength and spend as much time with him as possible. Pam, Gary's wife, tells us that his faith remains strong even though he struggles with understanding why this is happening. Please pray for Pam and the family as they need our support in prayer. Pam thanks you all for your ongoing prayers.

Please continue to pray for Dorothy Ridley who is finding breathing very difficult at present. Pray too for Perrie who had to go to hosppital early in the week for tests and Polly who feinted at the cafe and has being undergoing tests since. Please pray for an accurte diagnosis for both ladies, correct treatment and peace of mind. Please pray too for Peter Kaufman as he continues his healing journey. He remains very weak and is finding life difficult. Pray too for Frank as he awaits the results of a scan on his badly swollen knee.

Our monthly family service

Jesus said, 'I am the true vine.'

Reading: John 15:1-8

John Smith and Simon Downing

SUNDAY'S WORSHIP SERVICE – Simon's band will be leading worship at our monthly family service as John returns with one of his epic dramas which we hope will challenge you and make you smile. This service is based on Jesus' words when He said, 'I am the true vine'. It will be preceded by Breakfast Time which is open to all ages from 9.30am. Breakfast time is a place to encourage Christians and non-Christians alike, to share in some food together, before the family services begin. It is about using the gifts of relationships, hospitality, generosity, and kindness to make people feel valued. It is about helping people feel that they 'belong.' As relationships develop, the sharing of one's faith may also emerge in time. Don't miss this opportunity. Of course, we do hope you can join us for the service in the church but if you can't actually join us, you will be able to access the service at any time by going to.

NEXT WEEKEND'S WORSHIP SERVICE 14th September 2025 – Clive's band will be leading worship as Simon begins a new sermon series entitled, "When God asks the question." In this series we will be invited to listen afresh to God and, perhaps wonder why God asks us a question when He certainly knows the answer already. Intriguing – so don't miss part one as God asks, "Where are you?"

TABLE TENNIS - Summer is coming to an end and that means table tennis is starting up again. Beginning on Tuesday, 2nd September at 2pm and continuing every Tuesday - except 23rd when there is no meeting. We play from 2pm to 4pm and only charge £2.00 per afternoon which includes tea, coffee, biscuits and sometimes even cake. Please come along and join us, even if you haven't played for many a year. We are a friendly bunch and share many stories. We will be at the hall at rear of the church looking forward to seeing you all. You can contact me for further information on 07583468369 - John Bell.

COMMUNITY CAFÉ – We are now back in action from 10am to 12 noon on Tuesday mornings. If you need somewhere to relax, have some great conversations, make a few friends and above all, enjoy a good cup of tea or coffee, then the Love Aldwick Community Café is the place to be.

ALPHA HAS BEGUN – Our new Alpha series has begun and will continue on Monday evenings over the next 10 or so weeks. In week one, everyone had a really interesting and challenging time, not to mention a choice of delicious desserts. Thank you to all those involved into making this course such a wonderful experience. If you want to know more then do talk to Clive, John or Joy.

PASTORAL CARE GROUP – I will be arranging a meeting for the pastoral care group very soon. If you don't already belong to this group and would like to help, do let me know. Derek

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit." John 15:5 (NIV)

This poem celebrates the wonder of creation and reminds us that just as the world depends on God's sustaining power, we too depend fully on Christ - the true Vine - for life, growth, and fruitfulness.

The Vine and All Creation

The stars declare His vast design,
The hills stand firm by hand divine.
Each tree, each stream, each ocean wide,
Proclaims the One who does provide.
Creation sings from field to sea -
Without His breath, we cease to be.

The flowers bloom with colours bright,
The birds take wing in morning light.
The rivers run, the seasons turn,
All wait on Him from whom they learn.
Not one small thing stands on its own -
Each life is held by Him alone.

And we, like branches on the vine,
Draw life from Christ, the Root divine.
Apart from Him, we bear no fruit,
But in His love, we're strong, we're rooted.
His Word, like rain, renews our ground,
In Him, our deepest joy is found.

The storm may come, the winds may blow,
Yet still in Him, our spirits grow.
He prunes with care, He lifts with grace,
To shape our hearts, to show His face.
In sun or shade, we learn to trust -
Our Vine is wise, His ways are just.

So let the earth with gladness rise,
Let every breath and soul baptise
The name of Him through whom all came -
The risen Lord, the great "I AM."
In Christ we live, and move, and grow -
The Vine from whom all blessings flow.

Draw life from Christ, the Root divine.
Apart from Him, we bear no fruit,
But in His love, we're strong, we're rooted.
His Word, like rain, renews our ground,
In Him, our deepest joy is found.

The storm may come, the winds may blow,
Yet still in Him, our spirits grow.
He prunes with care, He lifts with grace,
To shape our hearts, to show His face.
In sun or shade, we learn to trust -
Our Vine is wise, His ways are just.

So let the earth with gladness rise,
Let every breath and soul baptise
The name of Him through whom all came -
The risen Lord, the great "I AM."
In Christ we live, and move, and grow -
The Vine from whom all blessings flow.
