Mark 2:23 - 3:6

Derek Robinson

TODAY'S FAMILY WORSHIP SERVICE – Do join us as Clive and his band lead us in inspiring worship before I continue our series 'The Magnificence of the Messiah – Part V'. In my talk we will see Jesus challenge expectations and religious rules as He declares Himself Lord of the Sabbath.
What does true rest really mean — and why does it matter so much to Jesus? Come and discover the freedom, compassion, and authority of the Messiah who puts people before rules and restores life where it has been constrained. Don't miss this.

Of course, we do hope you can join us for the service in the church but if you can't actually join us, you will be able to access the service at any time by going to - https://www.aldwickbaptist.co.uk/category/current-sermons

NEXT WEEKEND'S WORSHIP SERVICE – 22nd February 2026. Do join us as Simon and his band lead us in inspiring worship before he continues our series, "The Magnificence of the Messiah" – Part VI. In this next message we will see Jesus the Teacher — not merely offering wise advice, but speaking with authority that astonishes crowds and challenges hearts. When Jesus teaches, people are not left neutral. His words uncover motives, confront assumptions, and reveal truth with clarity and power. What makes His teaching different from every other voice? And what happens when His words move from information… to transformation? Come ready to listen, to reflect, and to encounter the One who's teaching still carries life-changing authority today.

This week's poem

When Jesus says, "The Sabbath was made for man," He is restoring something precious that we often neglect. However busy or important we feel, His call to rest remains. Our poem this week gently explores that truth.

Lord of the Sabbath

We hurry on with urgent pace,
Important tasks we must embrace.
Each role we fill, each load we bear,
Feels far too weighty not to care.

From youthful drive to seasoned years,
Through hopes and plans and quiet fears,
We measure worth by what we do,
By lists checked off and goals pursued.

Yet wheat still ripens in the field,
And heavens turn without our yield.
Creation rests in stronger hands
Than all our careful, driven plans.

One Sabbath day, in fields of grain,
Christ walked beyond the bounds of strain.
"The Sabbath gift was made for you" —
A word both tender, firm, and true.

Not rule nor burden, tight and grim,
But space to breathe and trust in Him.
For He who healed the withered hand
Still bids the weary simply stand.

Messiah, Lord of sacred rest,
Calls striving hearts to be made blessed.
Lay down the rush, release control —
And find your rest within His soul.

HOMEGROUPS – We will shortly be starting two new homegroups as the current groups are bursting at the seams. So, if you are not a member of a homegroup yet then this would be a good time to join. They are great places to dig into God's word, to really get to know people and share your prayer requests. If you want to know more, just talk to me. Derek.

THINKING ABOUT BAPTISM – We're holding a baptismal service in May — a joyful celebration of lives made new in Christ! If you're a believer and haven't yet been baptised, why not take time to pray and ask: "Is now the moment to take this step?" If it is, then please talk to Simon or Derek.
