PRAYER CORNER

PIERCING THE DARKNESS - Samaritan's Purse provided life-changing cataract surgeries in Cambodia.

Seom began losing his eyesight as a teenager, yet he was still forced to serve as a soldier during the Khmer Rouge regime. As he grew older, cataracts stole his ability to farm and provide for his family. "It was really hard to have other people help on the farm, but I couldn't do the work by myself," he said.

With no access to medical care, Seom believed blindness would define the rest of his life. Then a Samaritan's Purse cataract team arrived in western Cambodia. In a surgery lasting only minutes, doctors restored the sight he thought he had lost forever."I am really excited and thankful for this team," Seom said. "You took care of me."

Yet Seom's greatest transformation was spiritual: after hearing the Gospel from the team, Seom placed his faith in Christ. "I saw all the joy around me—I saw Christ through you all," he said. "I see that God is good, and I wanted to experience His love." Do thank the Lord for the work of Samaritan's Purse.
