THINKING ABOUT BAPTISM – We're holding a baptismal service on 10th May — a joyful celebration of lives made new in Christ! If you're a believer and haven't yet been baptised, why not take time to pray and ask: "Is now the moment to take this step?" Baptism is a beautiful declaration of faith — a public "yes" to Jesus, and a powerful picture of new life. We have even bought some new handrails to ensure your safety. If you'd like to explore this further, we'd love to chat with you. Simon and Derek.

As we celebrate Easter, we rejoice in the living hope we have through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. As 1 Peter 1:3 reminds us, "He has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead." The poem below reflects on the joy and hope of Easter morning.

The Joy of Easter

The dawn breaks soft on Easter morn,
A world renewed, a hope reborn.
The stone rolled back, the grave set free,
And life has won the victory.

The birdsong lifts the quiet air,
New life and promise everywhere.
The cross once stood in shadowed gloom,
Now light pours forth from empty tomb.

No longer bound by fear or night,
Christ rises in triumphant light.
The tears of Friday fade away,
Replaced by joy this Easter Day.

Hope lives again, hearts lift and sing,
For death has lost its bitter sting.
And in this joy we all may share —
New life, new hope, new grace, new prayer.
